

Hotelsfinder special

Visibility for hotelkeepers in Rome, Florence, Venice, Milan, Naples, Verona and other cities.

Hotelsfinder.com is the web directory dedicated to the hospitality facilities of the principal Italian areas. It has traffic of over 2,000 visitors a day and is visible on the Internet in the most effective way to reach users who are interested in an Italian vacation. It is produced in many languages and also positioned in specific markets. It charges no commissions and is an effective tool for getting around the broker barrier and reaching users directly.

You can personally verify what we are saying by simulating the searches made by users on the principal portals with the most used search keys, such as on Google with: venice hotel, hotel in rome, verona hotel, hotel in florence, milan hotel, alberghi a napoli.

Also search on Yahoo, MSN and Altavista.

Hotelsfinder.com offers all hospitality facilities in Italy the possibility of activating a link to the site in their own category of reference and planning an advertising campaign with a "pay-per-click" formula.
